Re: MUR 7288

Dear Mr. Jordan:

We write on behalf of the DNC Services Corporation/ Democratic National Committee (the "DNC") and William Q. Derrough, in his official capacity as treasurer of the DNC (collectively, "Respondents") in the above-referenced matter (the "Complaint").

The Complaint incorrectly alleges that donations made by Team Tom, a Section 527 organization that served as Chairman Perez's campaign organization in the race for DNC chair (the "Campaign"), somehow amounted to Respondents themselves spending "soft money" in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"). Yet, the Complaint sets forth no facts, even if taken as true, that demonstrate that the disbursements by the Campaign were made by the DNC or any individual acting on behalf of the DNC. In fact, the donations were not made by the DNC or on behalf of the DNC, were not made for a DNC purpose, and were not controlled by the DNC. The sole officer of the Campaign and the only person with authority to make disbursements was its Custodian of Records, who was not a DNC employee and did not act at the DNC's direction. Moreover, any involvement of Chairman Perez in these donations would have been perfectly permissible because the disbursements were related to the chair's race and were not made on behalf of the DNC itself.

The Complaint sets forth no facts that, even if true, would amount to a violation of the Act or the Federal Election Commission ("FEC" or "Commission") regulations by any of the Respondents. The Commission must therefore find no reason to believe a violation occurred and immediately dismiss the Complaint.<sup>1</sup>

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

In anticipation of the DNC's 2017 officer elections, many candidates established and registered Section 527 organizations with the Internal Revenue Service in order to raise and spend funds in connection with their officer campaigns. As an election for a national party office is not an election for a federal office, and the DNC itself did not establish, finance, maintain, or control these 527 organizations, the campaigns did not register with the FEC, were not required to do so, and were not subject to the same contribution limits or source restrictions as the DNC itself.

Specifically, the Campaign was established as a Section 527 organization on December 13, 2016 to support Tom Perez's candidacy for Chairman of the DNC.<sup>2</sup> The DNC had no role whatsoever in the establishment of the Campaign and the sole officer of the Campaign is the Custodian of Records, who was the only person with authority to issue checks or authorize disbursements on its behalf.<sup>3</sup> No one serving as a DNC employee or acting on its behalf ever simultaneously served as the Custodian of Records of the Campaign.<sup>4</sup>

Tom Perez was elected Chairman of the DNC on February 25th, 2017. Following the election, the Campaign began to dispose of excess funds in order to wind down its operations. On March 28th, 2017 the Campaign disbursed $22,271 to Jamie for DNC Chair, a Section 527 organization established to support Jamie Harrison's candidacy for Chairman of the DNC.<sup>5</sup> On April 3rd, 2017, the Campaign disbursed $5,000 to We the DNC, a Section 527 organization established to support Sally Boynton Brown's candidacy for Chairman of the DNC.<sup>6</sup> Finally, on April 6th, 2017, the Campaign disbursed $5,000 to Jehmu for DNC, a Section 527 organization established to support Jehmu Greene's candidacy for Chairman of the DNC.<sup>7</sup> At the time of each of these three disbursements the Custodian of Records for the Campaign was Jane Farrell, who was neither an employee or agent of the DNC.<sup>8</sup>

LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Complaint's sole allegation is that there was a violation of the so-called "soft money" restrictions that prohibit national parties from raising and spending "non-federal funds."<sup>9</sup> However, a complaint must "contain a clear and concise recitation of the facts which describe a violation of a statute or regulation over which the Commission has jurisdiction."<sup>10</sup>

The Act provides that "[a] national committee of a political party . . . may not solicit, receive, or direct to another person a contribution, donation, or transfer of funds or any other thing of value, or spend any funds, that are not subject to the limitations, prohibitions, and reporting requirements of this Act."<sup>11</sup> This prohibition also applies to agents of a national committee of a political party but only where the agent is "acting on behalf of such [] national committee."<sup>12</sup> Accordingly, for the Commission to find reason to believe that a violation occurred, the Complaint must set forth clear facts that show that either the DNC itself raised or spent non-federal funds or that individuals who did so were acting on behalf of the DNC at the time. It does neither.

A. The National Party "Soft Money" Restrictions Do Not Apply to the Campaign

As a threshold matter, it is important to note that the national party "soft money" restrictions do not generally apply to organizations set up separately from a party committee to raise and spend funds exclusively to support the campaigns of individuals running for national party office. While the "soft money" restrictions do apply to "[a]n entity that is directly or indirectly established, financed, maintained or controlled by a national party committee,"<sup>13</sup> the Campaign has never been "established, financed, maintained, or controlled" by the DNC and there are no facts in the Complaint to suggest otherwise. As stated above, there is only one officer at the Campaign that has authority to receive contributions or make disbursements on its behalf and that officer was never simultaneously an officer of the Campaign and an employee or agent of the DNC.

Moreover, an organization that exclusively raises and spends funds in connection with a party officer election does not trigger the Act's contribution limits or registration or reporting requirements because it does not accept "contributions" or make "expenditures" as defined by the Act.<sup>14</sup> Under the Act and the Commission's regulations, both "contribution" and "expenditure" are defined in reference to influencing an "election for Federal office," and the term "Federal office" does not include an officer position at a national party committee.<sup>15</sup> There is no dispute that the Campaign was and is free to generally raise and spend non-federal funds in connection with the race for DNC Chair.

B. The Contributions at Issue Were Legitimate Expenditures Made by the Campaign Related to the Race for DNC Chair and There is No Factual Evidence to Show That They Were Made on Behalf of the DNC.

The Complaint does not contest that it was wholly appropriate for the Campaign to raise and spend non-federal funds in connection with the DNC Chair's race, both before and after Chairman Perez was elected, with the exception of the three donations made by the Campaign to Chairman Perez's former opponents. However, there is no legitimate factual basis to support the claim that these three disbursements were made on behalf of the DNC or are otherwise legally distinguishable from the Campaign's other permissible wind down activities. The Complaint weakly tries to twist the fact that a DNC spokesperson answered a question about the donations months after they were made into some kind of indicator of DNC involvement at the time of the disbursements. There is nothing questionable about a DNC staff person fielding a question directed to the DNC or knowing about publicly disclosed donations months after they occurred. Similarly, the Complaint nakedly speculates that a reference to Chairman Perez's "staff" reaching out about the donations must have referred to DNC staff, but "mere speculation" cannot support an FEC complaint.<sup>16</sup> Moreover, the Campaign in fact had its own "staff," which actually made the donations at issue. The donations were issued by the Campaign's Custodian of Records, the only individual authorized to disburse funds on behalf of the Campaign, and there is no specific allegations in the Complaint that the DNC itself was otherwise directing or spending these funds.

Ultimately, the nature of these donations reinforces that they were Campaign expenses and not on behalf of the DNC. These donations were not made to candidates running for public office, or otherwise used to help elect Democrats as part of the DNC's mission. As described in the Complaint, the recipients of the Campaign's donations used them to pay off debts remaining from the campaign for DNC Chair.<sup>17</sup> These funds were used to pay for expenses connected with an election not subject to the Act, just like every other expenditure made by the Campaign. They were made for Campaign purposes and not for DNC activity. Absent any concrete facts showing that the donations were actually directed by the DNC itself, of which the Complaint presents none at all, they raise no issues under the Act and are completely outside its scope.

<sup>15</sup> Id. § 100.4 (Defining a "federal office" to exclusively include "the office of President or Vice President of the United States, Senator or Representative in, or Delegate or Resident Commissioner to, the Congress of the United States.").

C. Even if an Agent of the DNC is Involved in the Spending of "Soft Money," it Only Implicates the Act if it Was on Behalf of the DNC.

Without any applicable legal authority to show that the donations violated the Act, or any relevant facts to support the naked allegation that the donations were DNC expenditures, the Complaint is essentially left with the specious proposition that there must be a problem because they were made by Chairman Perez's campaign and he was the one elected DNC Chair. First, it is important to note that the Complaint does not allege any specific facts concerning direct involvement by Chairman Perez in making the donations, and he was not an officer of the Campaign or authorized signatory at the time that they were made. Regardless, the Complaint's theory is still ridiculous on its face, and falls apart upon even the most basic evaluation.

If the Complaint's approach is correct, then any campaign of any individual elected to a national party office would only be able to spend Federal funds that are reported to the FEC the second that the individual was elected, even though the campaigns are generally not subject to such requirements. This would make it impossible for such a campaign to pay for any wind down expenses using funds on hand starting the moment after the election, even if the expenses were incurred prior to the election. This is nonsensical. It also does not comport with the Act or the Commission's clear guidance. Even though Chairman Perez is the Chair of the DNC, any other outside activities he undertakes are only subject to the national party "soft money" restrictions if he is actually acting on behalf of the party at the time. While it is true that Chairman Perez is the Chair of the DNC, which is about the only actual fact the Complaint can muster, donations made by the Campaign to pay for other former candidate's campaign expenses were not on behalf of the DNC, and there is no factual or legal basis to conclude otherwise.

The Commission's explanation of the "soft money" restrictions in its Explanation and Justification of the relevant regulations reaffirms that "the breadth of the national party non-Federal funds prohibition is limited . . . to the extent that the prohibition applies to officers and agents 'acting on behalf' of national parties."<sup>18</sup> In further discussing the scope of this agency, the Commission stated that "a principal can only be held liable for the actions of an agent when the agent is acting on behalf of the principal, and not when the agent is acting on behalf of other organizations or individuals."<sup>19</sup> The Commission has been clear: the soft money restrictions do not apply to Chairman Perez when he is not acting on behalf of the DNC, but instead, engaged in activity on behalf of another organization, like the Campaign.

As an example, in Advisory Opinion 2004-25, the Commission held that the Act did not restrict the ability of Senator Corzine, the Chairman of the DSCC at the time, to donate personal funds to organizations that engage in voter registration activity. The Commission once again noted that “[a]lthough the [BCRA] restrictions extend to officers and agents of a national party committee, the plain language of both the Act and the Commission’s regulations specifically limit application of these restrictions to national party committee officers and agents only when such individuals are acting on behalf of the national party committee.”<sup>20</sup> According to the opinion, Senator Corzine would not be acting on behalf of the DSCC, and the Act would not apply, given that the donation of funds would be made “at his own discretion, without express or implied authority from, or on behalf of, the DSCC.”<sup>21</sup> Just because someone is the Chairman of an organization in no way does that mean that everything they do is on behalf of that organization, as the Commission previously held.

Again, there is nothing in the Complaint to suggest that the donations at issue were on behalf of the DNC. The Complaint’s only basis for claiming otherwise is that the Campaign spent funds “that were raised to elect him as Chairman of the DNC” and that “those who received the donations had debt related to a DNC campaign.”<sup>22</sup> This is nothing more than a verbal sleight of hand as it is plain that funds raised and spent in running for a DNC office are not subject to the Federal funds requirement. An expense incurred by someone seeking a DNC office is not an expense on behalf of the DNC itself. The Commission has also expressly rebuked this kind of general connection as insufficient grounds for a violation – “it is not enough that there is some relationship or contact between the principal and agent; rather, the agent must be acting on behalf of the principal to create potential liability for the principal.”<sup>23</sup> Although it is of course true that Chairman Perez is Chair of the DNC, just as Senator Corzine was Chair of the DSCC, there is no other indication that the donations at issue were actually made on behalf of the DNC, and indeed they were not.

<sup>21</sup> The Commission has consistently read BCRA in the context of agents of federal candidates to similarly preserve their ability to raise and spend soft money when acting on behalf of other organizations. See e.g., FEC Adv. Ops. 2007-05 (Iverson); 2003-10 (Nevada State Democratic Party); 2015-09 (Senate Majority PAC and House Majority PAC).

Ultimately, the Complaint presents nothing more than mere speculation that, even if supported by facts, would not result in a violation of the Act. The Commission must find no reason to believe any violation occurred, and immediately dismiss the matter and close the file.
